

Loser's vs winner's mindset

“ Losers tend to blame others for their failures. They adopt a victim's mindset, whereby it's always someone else's fault and the whole world is against them. Winners on the other hand see criticism as a positive opportunity to improve. They blame themselves for their mistakes and act on feedback to correct them.

– Marek Kiczowskiak